Filling Out Your Assumption Program of Loans for Education (APLE) For Credentialed Teachers Application for 2011-12

The APLE for Credentialed Teachers is a competitive teacher incentive program designed to encourage credentialed teachers to apply for, accept teaching positions, and continue teaching in California K-12 public schools that are ranked in the lowest 20 percent on the Academic Performance Index (API).

Applying for the APLE Credentialed Teachers is a two-step process. The applicants need to:

1) Complete and sign the application and Loan Assumption Agreement (LAA); AND

2) Submit both documents to your Country Office of Education APLE Credentialed Teacher Coordinator for submission to the California Student Aid Commission (Commission).

Tips for Credentialed Teacher Applicants

Applicants must:

- Be currently teaching at an eligible public K-12 school ranked in the bottom 20% of the API; (defined by the CA Department of Education as a Rank 1 or Rank 2 school)
- Have received one or more educational loans that still have an outstanding balance;
- Have not previously participated in and received benefits from the APLE;
- Not be in default on any state or federally insured educational loan;
- Submit a completed Credentialed Teacher Application to your County Office of Education;
- Submit a signed Loan Assumption Agreement with your application to your County Office of Education;
- Submit application and Loan Assumption Agreement to your County Office of Education APLE Coordinator by the deadline they have established.
