SUBJECT: California Dream Act Boot Camps

This Special Alert from the California Student Aid Commission announces two California Dream Act Boot Camps in coordination with Immigrants Rising and as part of the 2022-23 Annual Statewide Financial Aid Workshop series.

These free California Dream Act Boot Camps will be a continuation of the regularly scheduled Statewide Financial Aid Workshops at El Camino College (Torrance) on October 5, 2022, and at Mission College (Santa Clara) on October 28, 2022.

Attendees have the option of registering for just one of these workshops or both. If registering for both, two separate registrations are required, and lunch will be provided.

The Boot Camp will include an in-depth look into the CA Dream Act Application through engaging presentations and interactive workshops. Participants will receive key information, data and resources that will help them increase application and award rates for undocumented & other eligible students in California. The intended audience is anyone who supports undocumented students at high schools, colleges, universities, adult schools, and noncredit programs.

Register for either the Workshop or the Boot Camp online.
