SUBJECT: Save the Date! The 3rd Annual California College Affordability Summit

This Special Alert from the California Student Aid Commission is pleased to announce the 3rd Annual California College Affordability Summit (Summit) in partnership with the Riverside County Office of Education and the Education Trust-West. The event is taking place virtually on April 20-21, 2022, from 9:00am – 12:00pm both days and is free of charge for participants across the state.

The Summit will equip counselors and educators with the information, resources, and tools at their disposal to be successful in the implementation of the new financial aid completion requirement for local educational agencies. This is a crucial time in California around its commitment to increase financial aid awareness and opportunities for low-income and first-generation students.

Session topics will cover the following areas:

- The financial aid applications and resources
- Best practices and how to engage parents
- Beyond the financial aid application

We hope you do not miss the opportunity to be part of this exciting event in such a pivotal time for our state. Register now!
