SUBJECT: Upcoming Training Events – September 2022

This Special Alert from the California Student Aid Commission (Commission) announces upcoming in-person trainings and virtual workshops.

Annual Statewide Financial Aid Workshops

The Annual Statewide Financial Aid Workshops offer high school counselors, student advocates, and community partners a half-day training on the most current financial aid information, including deadlines and legislative compliance. In 2022-2023 the Commission will feature both in-person events and virtual workshops. In-person workshops began in late August 2022 and will continue in September. A calendar of these events and registration for fall workshops is available online.
