

LeBaron Woodyard
Dean, Academic Affairs
Chancellor's Office California Community Colleges

California Student Aid
Commission Hearing on Distance Education

Growth of Distance Education in the California Community Colleges 2005-10

Distance Education Course Sessions Compared to Traditional Course Sessions From 2005 - 2010

Fiscal Year	Distance Education	Traditional Education	Percentage
2005-06	21,407	456,644	4.69%
2006-07	26,121	465,680	5.61%
2007-08	32,380	486,866	6.65%
2008-09	39,178	482,756	8.12%
2009-10	39,964	440,933	9.06%

Percent Change for DE Compared to Traditional Instruction from 2005-10

	2006-07	2007-08	2008-09	2009-10
■ DE	16.31%	18.83%	20.98%	5.82%
■ Traditional	2.37%	4.14%	3.85%	-5.96%

Distance Education Enrollments Compared to Traditional Enrollments from 2005-10

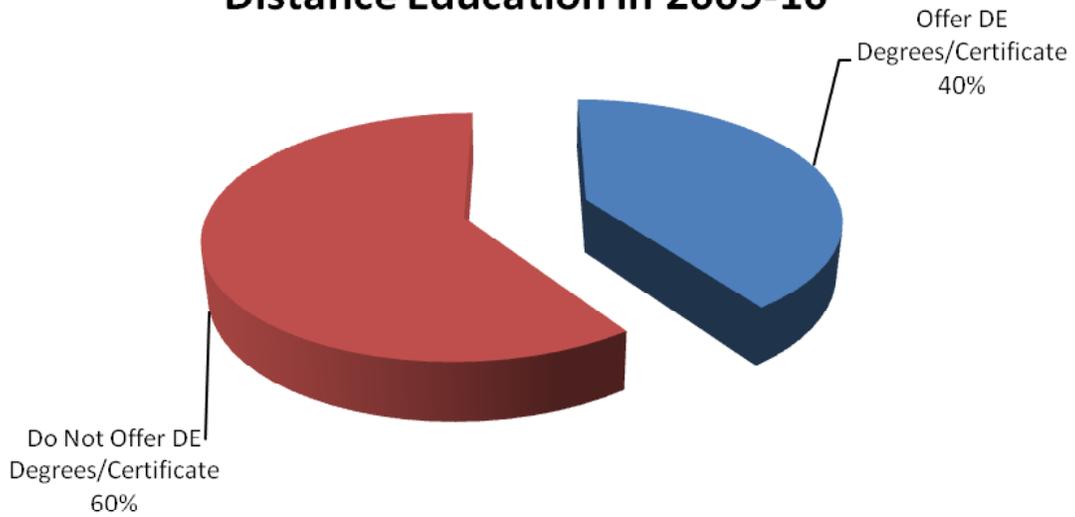

Fiscal Year	Distance Education	Traditional Education	Total	Percent of Total
2005-06	328,372	2,630,207	2,958,579	12.48%
2006-07	392,355	2,694,149	3,086,504	14.56%
2007-08	483,884	2,810,572	3,294,456	17.22%
2008-09	611,689	2,923,137	3,534,826	20.93%
2009-10	649,518	2,758,831	3,408,349	23.54%

Online Delivery Compared to Other Methods of Distance Education Delivery

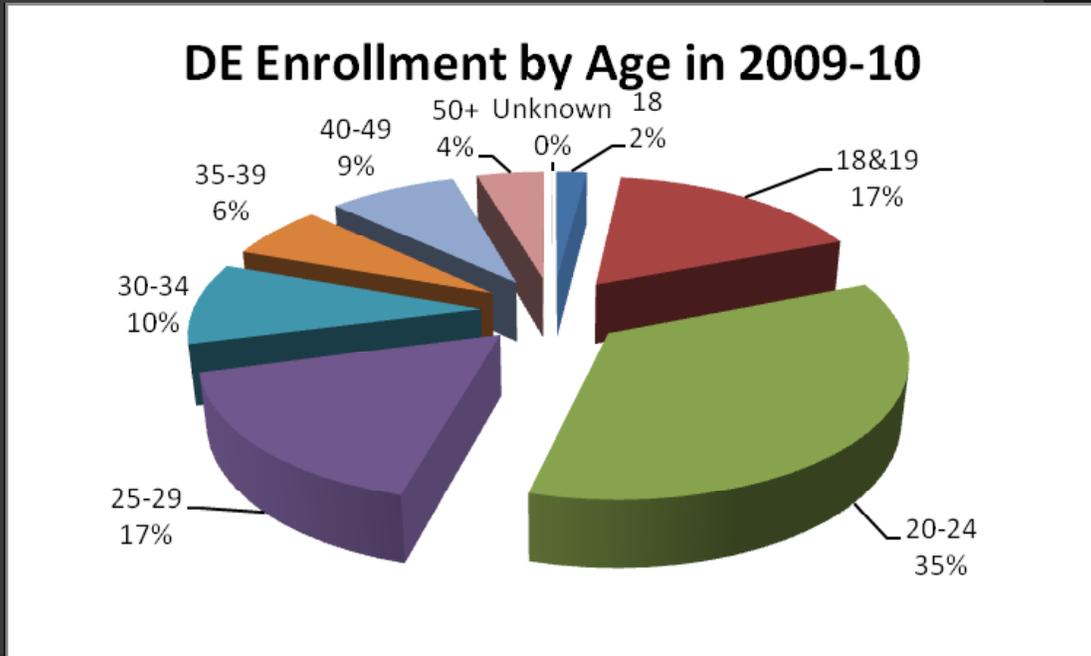

Degrees and Certificates Through Distance Education

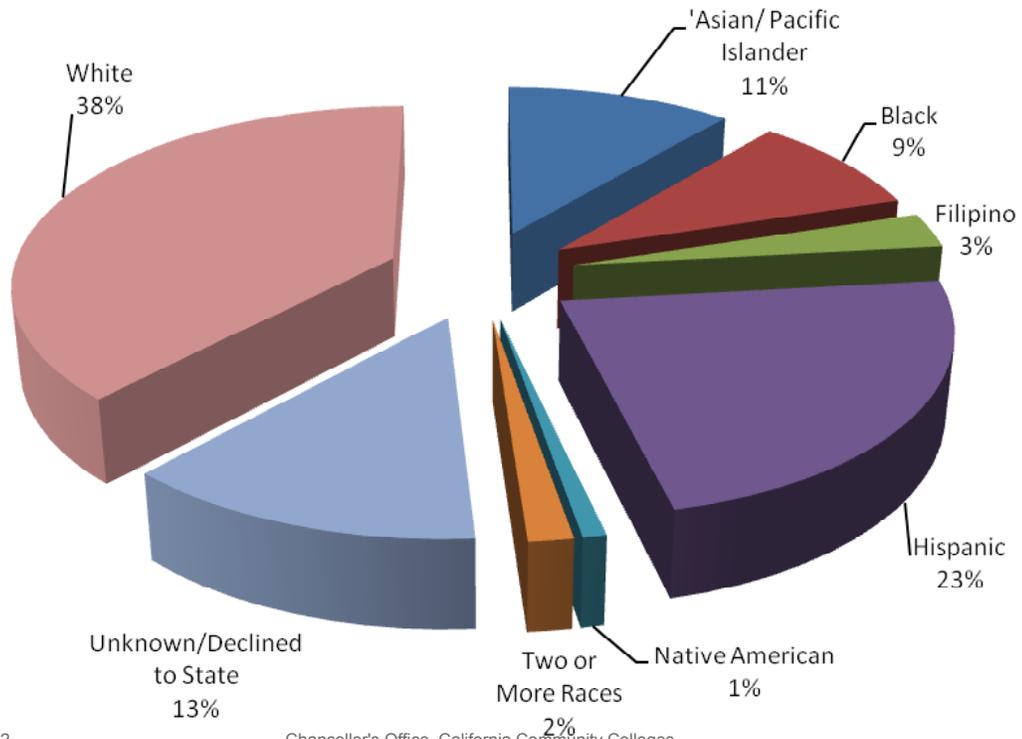

Percentage of California Community Colleges Offering Degrees and Certificates Through Distance Education in 2009-10

Enrollment by Age

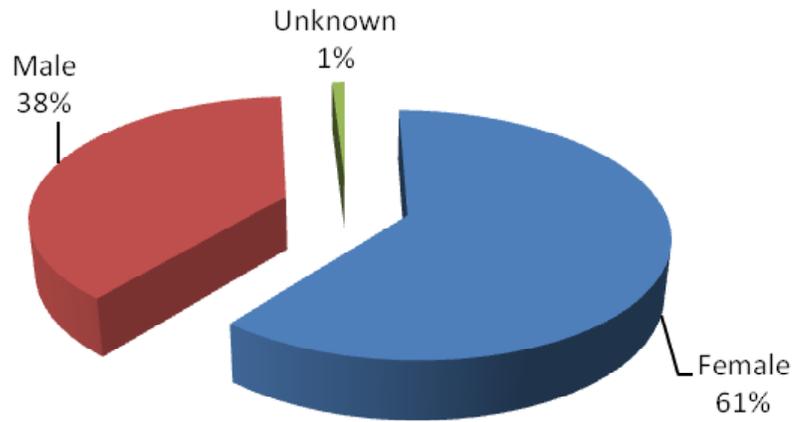

Enrollment by Ethnicity in DE Courses Sessions in 2009-10

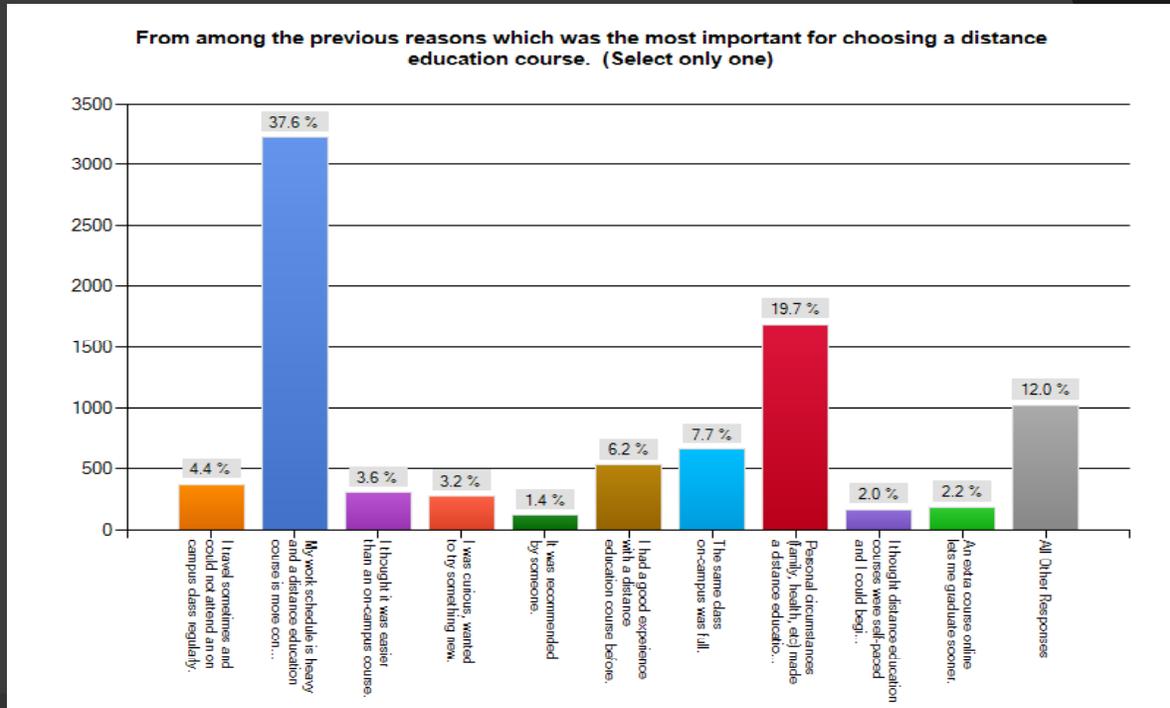

Enrollment by Gender

Female and Male Enrollments in DE Course Sessions 2009-10

Why Student Take Distance Education Courses

Cal Grant Students and Distance Education Enrollment in 2010-

11

- 70,742 Cal Grant students for a total of $81 million
- 22,310 were enrolled in a distance education course and 4,019 were enrolled in a hybrid course
- 68,877 (97%) Cal Grant students were in at least 1 traditional course
- The average number of on-campus courses taken by Cal Grant students during 2010-11 was 6