Sacramento Black College Expo Cancelled

Sacramento, CA (2018) –California State University, Sacramento has made the decision to cancel the Black College Expo™ scheduled for November 17, 2018, because of poor air quality related to the Camp Fire. The university closed its campus earlier this week and cancelled classes and all outdoor activities.

“We are disappointed but understand why the university decided to cancel the Black College Expo™ in Sacramento this weekend,” said Lupita Cortez Alcalá. “We are working closely with all our partners to see if we can reschedule the event as we had more than 1500 students who signed up to attend this first-ever event in our region.”

Updates regarding this event will be provided here:
