Search for Student Aid Commission Chief Executive Director Announced

Sacramento, CA (2019) – An exceptional professional opportunity has been advertised for the key leadership position at the state’s higher education financial aid administrator and policy advisor. Resumes for the California Student Aid Commission’s Executive Director position will be accepted through February 25, 2019, by CPS HR Consulting.

The Commission’s Executive Director is appointed by and reports to the 15-member Commission and is responsible for executive-level leadership and vision for the department’s statewide programs and the staff that administer them. The Commission oversees programs including the $2.2 billion Cal Grant, Middle Class Scholarship, the California Dream Act, and outreach efforts such as Cal-SOAP and Cash for College. The Commission provides student financial aid policy leadership in partnership with California institutions of higher education, financial institutions, and financial aid associations. In addition to the operations of the department, the Executive Director is responsible for sustaining effective relationships with other state agencies, higher education leaders, and postsecondary education institutions, among other entities.

The ideal candidate for this position is a seasoned management professional with a vast knowledge of state government and California’s higher education system. Expertise in higher education financing and financial aid funding as well as extensive public speaking and exceptional leadership skills are among the attributes of the Commission’s next Executive Director.
