

CALIFORNIA STUDENT AID COMMISSION THIRD PARTY RELEASE FORM

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) was enacted to protect the privacy of educational records, to establish the right of students to inspect and review their education records and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading statements.

FERPA prohibits agencies and educational institutions from releasing confidential information about a student without the student's consent unless they are releasing that information to provide financial and award information to federal, state and campus personnel who have a legitimate need to know this information. Records may be released to a third party, including a parent or guardian, only after receiving student authorization.

If you wish to allow a third-party access to your confidential financial or award information, please complete the box below.
