GSA 2019-25

TO: High School Counselors

FROM: Catalina G. Mistler
Deputy Director, Program Administration & Services Division

SUBJECT: Statewide Financial Aid Workshops - Update

This Special Alert from the California Student Aid Commission (Commission) provides an update to GSA 2019-15 regarding the Statewide Financial Aid Workshops (formerly known as High School Counselor Workshops).

We are pleased to announce that a few more locations were recently added: Sonoma County Office of Education (Santa Rosa), Lake Tahoe Community College (South Lake Tahoe), and Inyo County (Bishop). This year, a total of 46 free workshops are being offered statewide, including several new locations such as Antelope Valley College (Lancaster), Hartnell College (Salinas), Imperial Valley College (El Centro) and the Compton Unified School District.

If you have not yet registered for the 2019 Financial Aid Workshops, registration is still open, but seats are limited. Please access the 2019 Financial Aid Workshops registration page by clicking on the link below. Find the nearest workshop and sign up, it takes less than two minutes. Once you have registered, you will receive an e-mail response with your workshop location, parking details, maps and directions.

These workshops were renamed in an effort to better reflect the wider audience that we serve through these trainings which is comprised of not only high school counselors, but also non-profit advocacy groups, college outreach specialists, community education partners, Dreamer resource advocates, and foster youth support organizations.

We appreciate your dedication to students and look forward to a great 2019 Financial Aid Workshops series.
